THE SOLDIER VOTE N. Y. Sun: Various small politicians in Congress, and some men who ought to know better and do know better, are tumbling over one another in their wild haste to get the "soldier vote."

Is there anything in the soldier vote? Are not soldiers like other men, and do they not vote some with one party and some with another? The assumption that veterans of the war vote or can be induced to vote together as a class or caste is wholly gratuitous.

The assumption, too, that veterans
